

CCA Oral History Project
Log Notes

Interviewer Name: Helen Frierson
Storyteller Name: Rodric Lorimer
Date: 5/15/14
Time: 10:30 am

:26	Rod and Helen introduce themselves.
1:27	Rod shares his first memory of CCA. Being approached to be a board member.	*
2:28	Mentions Steven Oliver and Tecoah Bruce.
2:56	Rod mentions debt of college. Shared his expertise.
4:06	Dynamic time at the college. Tecoah organized "Group 1", eminent domain.	*
5:19	Potential and reputation of CCA (C) strong.
6:01	Rod recalls importance of needing to replace Ford with Neil (college presidents)
6:53	Helen recalls the first meeting she took minutes for, Rod was present.	*
8:26	Rod describes Neil, the energy and expertise he brought.
9:24	Search for San Francisco sites. Steven Oliver important to bringing forward sites. Lay foundation for where college is today.	**
10:50	Acquiring Architecture program.	*
11:42	Leaders who had greatest impact. Steve Oliver, David Kirshman, Tecoah.	*
13:27	Rod describes the education he received while serving at CCA	*
14:26	Helen asks Rod about his recent impressions of CCA. "Train moving very nicely." Healthy.	*
16:06	Mid-80s, too laid-back
16:56	Importance of endowment at CCA. Felt strongly about scholarships.	*
18:10	Helen shares about volunteering as a learning coach. College is 22% international students. More diversity on campus.	*
21:40	Rod describes wanting students to have a stronger sense of business. Helen mentions Mara Hancock.
23:27	Helen asks Rod how he'd like to be remembered. "Mover" of that era (1980's).	**
24:17	Rod shares additional memories of Steve Oliver.
25:28	Viola Frey. Faculty memories.	*
26:00	Helen asks Rod to describe each President.
28:00	Role of board of trustees.
28:52	Helen reads names of those that attended her first board meeting.
29:59	Jean Wentz. Capital campaign.	