COMMENCEMENT ADDRESS

EUGENE W. LEAKE

Eugene Leake, artist and educator, is President of the Maryland Institute, College of Art. He was an independent artist for the first eight years of his career but soon after service in the U.S. Navy in World War II he became Director of the Art Center Association of Louisville. From that time until the present, although he continues to be an active exhibiting painter, his community involvement has expanded to national dimensions as Chairman of the Maryland Arts Council, Director of the National Association of Schools of Art, and presently, a member of the Board of Directors of the Union of Independent Colleges of Art.

CONFERRING OF HONORARY DEGREES
The President of the College

For his accomplishments as an artist; for his contribution to the development of many other creative individuals; for his demonstrated commitment to the visual arts as an indispensable element in the quality of life; for these and for his many other accomplishments, the Board of Trustees of the California College of Arts and Crafts is proud to confer upon

EUGENE W. LEAKE
the Honorary Degree of
DOCTOR OF FINE ARTS

In recognition of her extraordinary qualities as a sculptor; as a spokesman for contemporary arts in the city of San Francisco; for her part in the enrichment of the lives of children through the joy of discovery; for these and for her many other accomplishments, the Board of Trustees of the California College of Arts and Crafts is proud to confer upon
