

VANTABLACK vs. THE PINKEST PINK

Anish Kapoor and Stuart Semple fight with Color

I have secured an exclusive license to use Vantablack for artistic purposes. I am the only artist in the world that can use Vantablack!

The world's blackest black is mine!!

That's not fair! Art materials should be available for everyone to use!

Whatever. Deal with it.

Since you won't share your Vantablack, I have created the world's pinkest pink pigment and everyone and it is available for everyone but *you*

What?!

Yep! Look, here's the legal disclaimer from my online store:

*Note: By adding this product to your cart you confirm that you are not Anish Kapoor, you are in no way affiliated to Anish Kapoor, you are not purchasing this item on behalf of Anish Kapoor or an associate of Anish Kapoor. To the best of your knowledge, information and belief this paint will not make its way into that hands of Anish Kapoor.

You're not supposed to have that!

In response to your rude post, I am creating the world's most glittery glitter and a bunch of other pigments including a very-black black.

All of which available for everyone but you!

The feud continues as Kapoor has threatened to sue Semple and refuses to relinquish his hold on Vantablack. Semple continues to make and sell his specially designed pigments and paints, many of which are displayed here, to everyone but Kapoor from his online store: CultureHustle.com
