

CCA Oral History Project
Log Notes

Interviewer Name: Alicia Bell
Storyteller Name: Greacian Goeke
Date: 9/28/14

Total time 14:29

:32	First memory of CCA. "Terror." Describes initial feeling of intimidation, wondering if she fits in, due to age and experience level.
2:40	Alicia asks Greacian how she overcame the initial intimidation. Drawing classes, Don Diviveiros. Faculty encouragement helped a lot.
3:23	Describes strongest memory of encouragement in drawing class with Don Diviveiros.
5:25	Other impactful faculty -- Dennis Leon
6:48	Discussion of myth in Dennis Leon's class, inspirational to her thesis, storytelling as central to art
8:12	Discusses Richard Carp's class. Investigation of "ultimate concern".
10:02	Describes changing major to performance art, working with Richard Carp
12:25	Process of creating own major of performance, which did not exist at CCA at the time	