

TORZO SUSTAINABLE SURFACES

DENIM

DENIM is made from acrylic infused recycled denim scraps. It is the perfect product for horizontal, vertical and specialty applications in any market segment.

Through its unique infusion process, TORZO melds the science of polymer chemistry with the sustainability of recycled wood and agricultural by-products to create durable and elegant architectural surface materials.