EVENT DESCRIPTION

To the Oakland Campus with Love

Last Day of Class on the Oakland Campus

To commemorate the last day of classes taking place on the historic Oakland campus, the Oakland Campus Legacy Committee (OCLC) is planning a special event in collaboration with the Alumni Association and Fine Arts Programs.

All students, faculty, staff, and alumni are invited to join the gathering on Macky Lawn at 3:00 pm, where we will be writing "love letters" to the Oakland campus. At approximately 4:00 pm, receptions with light refreshments will be held in the studios located on campus so that participants can visit the program facilities one last time.

For folks that won't be able to join us in person, please share your photos, videos, and letters here.

We'd also like to extend a special invitation to alumni to join the OCLC on a walking tour of the Oakland campus to reflect on the history of the site and share stories before the gathering. The tour will depart at 1:30 pm from Macky Lawn. If you'd like to join, please register on Eventbrite below and let us know you'll be joining the tour in the ticket questionnaire.

Register for your free ticket on Eventbrite.

For everyone's safety and comfort, kindly note that all event attendees who are eligible to be vaccinated against COVID-19 will be required to present proof of vaccination (including the booster, if eligible) upon arrival and to wear masks at all times unless actively eating or drinking. We ask that guests register for free tickets prior to arriving for this event.
