

CCA Oral History Project
Log Notes

Interviewer Name: Alicia Bell
Storyteller Name: Jan Watten
Date: 9/28/14

Total time 6:57

:21	First memory of CCA. Walking onto campus, green, welcoming.
:51	Talks about the impact of Sue Ciriclio and Eleanor Dickinson as professors.
1:30	Talks about the Oakland campus as a "paradise."
1:47	Describes an all-nighter in the printmaking studio before final reviews.
2:48	Talks about the supportive community on campus at the time.
3:33	Impact after graduation. Hard transition to the "real world". Library work study experience helpful. Eleanor Dickinson's class helpful to running a gallery. Found her "groove" eventually.
5:17	Advice to incoming students-- appreciate the freedom of time in school, but also take the practical classes. Balancing the working world and the passion-- "But don't lose the passion."
