

For your reading pleasure

An evolving display of books to accompany
Take Action: A For Freedoms Exhibition

Take Action is a group exhibition at CCA's Hubbell Street Galleries in SF from October 16–November 16, highlighting work by Bay Area artists working as creative citizens in their communities. The exhibition is urgently contemporary, featuring work by 100 Days Action, Sharon Daniel, Rodney Ewing, Aaron Gach, chris hamamoto & Jon Sueda, Taraneh Hemami, Packard Jennings, Dignidade Rebelde, Stephanie Syjuco, Kaitlin Trataris, Leila Weefur, Christine Wong Yap, and more.

Image credit: Sharon Daniel, Amends | Civil Death, installation view. Image courtesy of the artist.

This exhibit is part of CCA's Creative Citizenship in Action series.

CCA / LIBRARIES