

Attention All CCAC Faculty and Students

◆◆◆◆AIDS Awareness Week◆◆◆◆

November 27 - December 1, 1995

Monday, November 27

11:00-12:00 noon: IPW Gallery

Saul and Cece Levinson, who lost their son to AIDS in 1993, have been actively involved in the Names Quilt Project and will speak about their experience with the project. They will bring an unfinished quilt to display in Isabelle Percy West Gallery (downstairs, Founder's Hall from 11/27 - 12/1).

6:00 pm: Irwin Student Center

ATAQ student exhibition reception in the Irwin Student Center.

Tuesday, November 28

11:00-12:00 noon: IPW Gallery

Bill Hirshhorn, AIDS activist who will speak on the subject of AIDS, has been HIV positive for twelve years and is currently on Mayor Jordan's Ryan Commission in S.F.

Wednesday, November 29

11:00-12:00 noon: IPW Gallery

Gloria Lockett from Calpep, a former prostitute who has appeared on National television, will be accompanied by Lisa Ryan to speak about their work in the community to educate women and others about AIDS awareness.

Thursday, November 30

11:00-12:00 noon: IPW Gallery

Dr. Michael Alcalay, a pediatrician in the Bay Area who is ill with AIDS and who hosted "AIDS in focus" on KPFA, will speak on his experiences dealing with AIDS.

Friday, December 1 - Day Without Art

11:00-12:00 noon: IPW Gallery

Dr. Jackie Peterson Tulsy works with AIDS patients, particularly those with tuberculosis. She will speak about her work with homeless adults and her work at the Ambassador Hotel hospice.

7:00 pm: Nahl Hall Patio or Nahl Hall

Performance by Blackberri musical group (in Nahl Hall if the weather is inclement).

7:30 pm: Nahl Hall

Thom Gunn, renowned poet will speak in Nahl Hall, with an introduction by Lorne Buchman, president, CCAC. Thomas Gunn combines a respect for traditional poetic form with an interest in contemporary culture in his work, including topics such as the Hell's Angels, LSD and homosexuality.

