RENOWNED POET

JEROME
 ROTHENBERG

Reading from his new book A PARADISE OF POETS and his tradition-shattering anthology POEMS FOR THE MILLENIUM

JEROME ROTHENBERG will read and talk at CCAC, showing his vocal energies and pursuit of greater vision and deep understanding of poetry. "Rothenberg, a master reader, speaks from the personal, the primitive, and the chanted, to create his unique voice." His work is claimed by both performance artists and spoken word performers who hear the projection of "superhuman" dada surfacing through Navajo chants in his readings.

Author of over fifty books of poetry and prose and numerous anthologies, Rothenberg is a distinguished professor of Performance Art at U.C.S.D. Rothenberg is a world traveller and the recipient of literary awards including the prestigious American Book Award.

"Rothenberg is one of the truly contemporary American poets, who has returned U.S. poetry to the mainstream of international modern literature." — Kenneth Rexroth

Jerome Rothenberg will appear at the CCAC Campus, Broadway at College Ave.

One performance at 8PM in Nahl Hall. ADMISSION FREE. Information: 653-8118
