

CCA Oral History Project
Log Notes

Interviewer Name: Lukaza Branfman-Verissimo

Storyteller Name: Kathy Reece

Date: 11/23/19

Total time 5:19

:20	Talks about the meaning of the Oakland campus to her. "A sanctuary." Talks about laying on the lawn, to rest, to get new ideas, to listen to the birds. Sadness at losing the old buildings and the campus.
:47	What campus was like at the time-- the lawn as a center of activity.
1:55	Anecdote about smoking pot her friend got from Jerry Garcia and the students refusing beer that a Budweiser truck was attempting to give away on campus.
2:56	Talks about the endless inspiration available in a community of artists. Being able to wander around when creatively stuck, see what other people are doing and get un-stuck.
4:05	Talk about the rumor of a time capsule. Kathy doesn't remember it.
4:33	Talks about her Design teacher who pushed her in the direction of art as opposed to graphic design.	