

CCA Oral History Project
Log Notes

Interviewer Name: Lukaza Branfman-Verissimo
Storyteller Name: Jane and Craig Torlucci
Date: 11/23/19

Total time 9:30

:31	Discusses what the campus was like at the time they were here in the 1960s. Smaller, construction happening on and off campus. Rockridge station being built. Pilfering wood from the construction for projects. Lush garden in front of Treadwell Hall.
1:33	Memorable professors: George Post, Ralph Borge, Charles Gill, Robert Bechtel, Mrs. Purdy, Mrs. Elsnor.
1:50	Couple met in Ralph Borge's drawing class upstairs in the carriage house.
2:13	Climate of the school-- Creative energy, fun.
2:57	Anecdote about life drawing class, students' shyness about nude models. Remembering specific models in class -- Flo Allen, Kate.
4:22	Story about photography class using nude models in the garden. Truck backing up into row of lockers.
5:36	Jane talks about sleeping out in line to get registered for classes. Party atmosphere.
6:16	Janes talks about the meaning of campus to her. "Lots of history". Really attached to campus, upset about the sale. Connected to their relationship.
7:10	Craig discusses his roommate, Robert Barrett.
7:50	Discusses old locations of studios-- glassblowing by current ceramics studios. Illustration and Lettering were in B Building.
8:49	Working all night in the studio, going to Biff's for breakfast.	