November 16 Video Screening Moving Mountains: The Story of the Yiu Mien

"Moving Mountains" is an intimate look at a group of Southeast Asian Refugees, the Yiu Mien. This film portrays people caught between two worlds, through the words of several generations of refugees. Past and present are interwoven, revealing the complex realities of Americanization as it affects religious rituals, women's and men's roles, and the rhythms of everyday life. Presented with support from the California Council for the Humanities "Film & Speaker" program.

Programs are subject to change without notice. For more information, call 510 653-8118-X198
